NUMB. 5031

MONDAY, JUNE 3, 1745.

Some are left arrived the Mails due from Flanders.

Madrid, May 17.

THE Envoy Extraordinary from the Republick of Luca, who is come hither to make the Excuses of that State, on account of a Spanish Courier that had been robbed of his Mail and his Money in their Territories, has not been able to obtain an Audience, notwithstanding the warmest Sollicitations. According to the last Advices from the Army of the Count de Gages, it was encamped at Sarzana, on the Genesie Dominions. They likewise say, that M. D'Arce was in march with the First Column of the Duke of Savoy's Troops, to join him; that the Marquis de Castellar, at the Head of the Second Column, is to move on the 15th, his Royal Highness leaving out the same Day for Genoa; and that immediately after the Junction of the Army, they proposed to begin the Campaign. We learn by an Express from Genoa, that the Brilliant, which lately arrived there richly laden from Buenos Ayres, brought Advice, that the Count de Torres's Squadron, consisting of Nine Men of War, were at Sea, with 10,000,000 of Pieces of Eight on board; and that two other Ships are expected from the Cruz, with 5,000,000 from Mexico.

Recd of a Letter from the Camp of General Nadasti at Pratic, dated May 22, 1745.

The Enemy who were at Jaggerndorff, and who were reinforced to 10,000 Men, deserted it this Morning at Day-break; and after abandoning that important Post, have march'd to join the grand Army. As we had made various Dispositions to harass their Retreat, they made a Shew of attacking us; but the Force of our Artillery was so warm, and our Pandours, and other Light-arm'd Troops, did their Duty so effectually, that they were constrained to leave Part of their Ammunition, and the best Part of their Baggage, behind them. We pursued them as far as Mecker, where they had Five Squadrons of Horse, and some Infantry, which attack'd us with great Vigour, and drew us into some Confusion; but on the coming of our Artillery, and the Regiment of Saxe Gotha Dragoons, we drove them from the Field of Battle, in which we are encamp'd at present; and propose to-morrow to advance towards the Army of Prince Charles, not doubting that we shall either find, or make our Way clear. In this last Affair, we reckon the Enemy lost double the Number of Troops that we did; and Count Caroli pursued them to Horzen Plotz. We have likewise made a few Prisoners, but none of Distinction.

Frankfurt, June 1. The Ambassador of the Elector of Mentz, with several Ministers from the other Electors, and the Dyet of Election this Day, with the accustomed Ceremonies. The French have withdrawn a small Party of 130 Men they had at Aschaffenberg; and we apprehend from other Motions, that they are going to make a speedy Retreat. The Prince of Conti is to join the Army on the Neckar, where they are fortifying themselves with strong Lines and Redoubts, well furnished with Artillery, as far as Heidelberg. We are informed, that General Bathiani is fallen extremely ill of the Gout at Wurzburg.

Offenbach, May 30. A small Piquet of French Troops arrived here, but we do not suppose they will remain long, because 900 Waggon's have been demanded from the Landgrave of Darmstadt, to facilitate the March of their Army. It is reported, that the Prince of Conti is in full march, with the best Part of the Troops under his Command, in order to draw together the whole French Force in Germany, and to direct his March into Swabia, towards the Danube; or into some Country where he is less expected, at the Instance, we are told, of the King of Prussia; tho' some People will have it, that he is marching to Ingolstadt, to fetch off the Hessians, who have actually been disarmed, and made Prisoners of War there.

Naples, May 11. On the 5th Inst. by Order of the Government, an Embargo was laid on the Vessels in this and other Ports of this Kingdom, on board of which, Stables and proper Conveniences for the Embarcation of Horses and Mules are making, to transport, from the Ecclesiastical State to Orbitello, the Artillery, Baggage, and Hospital, and the Detachment for the Escort of it, which M. de Gages, at the Time of his late Decampment from the Duchy of Modena, directed to Cesena. The 19 Transports, with the large Train of Artillery, Ammunition, and Stores, design'd for the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops under M. de Gages, continue in this Port.

Florence, May 18. The last Letters from Sarzana bring Advice, that on the 4th and 6th Inst. the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops, under the Command of the Duke of Modena and M. de Gages, proceeded on their March from that Place to the Specchia; the last Division of which was on the 16th at Sestri, on their Way to Genoa; and that Piquets of the Vanguard were on the 12th at Bisagno, on their March to St. Pier d'Arena, the Place of Rendezvous for the Conjunction of these Troops with those of Don Philip. The said Troops were greatly harass'd in their Rear by a Detachment of Hussars from the Aulla, by which Means they lost about 300 Men, amongst whom were several Officers; which the Hussars conducted Prisoners to Parma, where the Austrian Troops still continue.

Dresden, May 19. On the 22d Inst. Col. Franklin, Aid du Camp to the Queen of Hungary, went with the Vanguard of the Corps under General Nadasti, to dislodge the Prussians at Reich-Henndorf, and pursued them to Landshut; where they were so strongly reinforced, that General Nadasti, who followed, thought it prudent to retreat. The Austrians lost upon this Occasion about 200 Men, including the Wounded; and the Prussians about the same Number. Prince Charles was on the 23d at Jaromitz, and intended to be at Kosselitz on the 26th. The Duke of Weissenfeldt went the same Day, the 23d, to Trautenau, where the Saxons were the 25th.

Mentz, May 19. The French have withdrawn their Regular Troops from the Castle of Konigstein, and have left there only one of their Compagnies Franches; and the Parties which were at Wisbaden and Mombach, were in Motion Yesterday to pass the Main at Floreheim. The Elector has appointed Count Stadion to be his Grand Maitre, and Minister of the Conferences, in the room of Count Bettendorff, deceased; and M. le Baron d'Erthal succeeds Count Stadion as Grand Marshal. Baron d'Erthal, and the Chancellor M. de Peptzel, sets out to-morrow for Frankfort.

Bonn, May 31. Field-Marshal Bathiani arrived this Day at Noon at the Allied Army upon the Sieg; and the Duke d'Arenberg is preparing to set out for Vienna. We hear Marshal Traun began his March on the 23d Instant.

Courtrai, June 5. In Consequence of the Orders sent to the Governor of the Citadel of Tournay, the Cannon of that Fortrefs began to fire upon the French on the 1st of this Month, early in the Morning. About Ten the Enemy began to fire from their Batteries; and it is said, they have thrown a vast Number of Bombs and red-hot Bullets into the Place, with a View to destroy the Garrison, and preserve the Fortifications. On the 3d the Besieged made a Sally, and nailed up four of the Enemy's Mortars. The next Day they sallied again, with still greater Success; and at the same time sprung a Mine, by which some Hundreds of the French were blown into the Air. It is said their Loss has been so great, that they have resolved to proceed by Sap, in order to save their Men. If this News should prove true, the Siege will be drawn into a great length, since it is certain the Citadel is well provided with every Thing necessary. The Governor has turn'd out the Horses of three Squadrons of Dragoons, and has refused to receive the Women, or the Sick and Wounded that were left in the Town; which are evident Proofs that he intends to defend the Place to the last Extremity.

Hague, June 4. The States having sent Orders to their Governor to defend the Citadel of Tournay to the utmost, we hear, that Hostilities recommenced in the Night between the 31st past and 1st Inst.

Thomas Greenough

The most Delightful Fragrant Tincture for the Breath, Teeth and Gums.

AT once using makes the BREATH perfectly white, clean and beautiful, and is the most perfect Cure for the Scurvy in the Gums in the World.

It infallibly preserves the Breath, Teeth and Gums in the utmost Beauty and Perfection, if they are no way affected; and if they are, immediately rectifies all their Defects in the same Minute it is used it makes the most effective, and smell incomparably fine and charming, and in a short Time so effectually cures, that a disagreeable Breath will not only be removed, but the Teeth will be made perfectly white and delicately beautiful; infallibly preserves them from decaying, and those a little decay'd from becoming worse; absolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, and inveterate, causing the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth, when almost eaten quite away, and assuredly cures the Teeth to Admiration. It is to be used but a few Days, Time, is exceeding pleasant, and leaves a very agreeable, delectable Flavour in the Mouth.

In a Word, for most delightfully performing, and curing an ill-scented Breath, for immediately making black Teeth most excellently white, certainly restoring when loose, effectually preserving them from rotting, decaying, and infallibly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, not its Equal in the Universe, as all the Quality and principal Gentry, who use it acknowledge.

It is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Bible and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
